SECTION 1 AYAAT 1 - 5

DIVINE PROTECTION AND SUSTENANCE FOR THE CUSTODIANS OF THE KA'BA

An answer to the dua of Ibraheem to incline the hearts of people towards Makka and provide them with sustenance in a barren land 14:37

The Quraysh travelled North to Syria in the Summer and South to Yemen in the winter to conduct trade. Destroying Abraha and his forces created safe passage and thus they should worship the Lord of the House who made this possible.

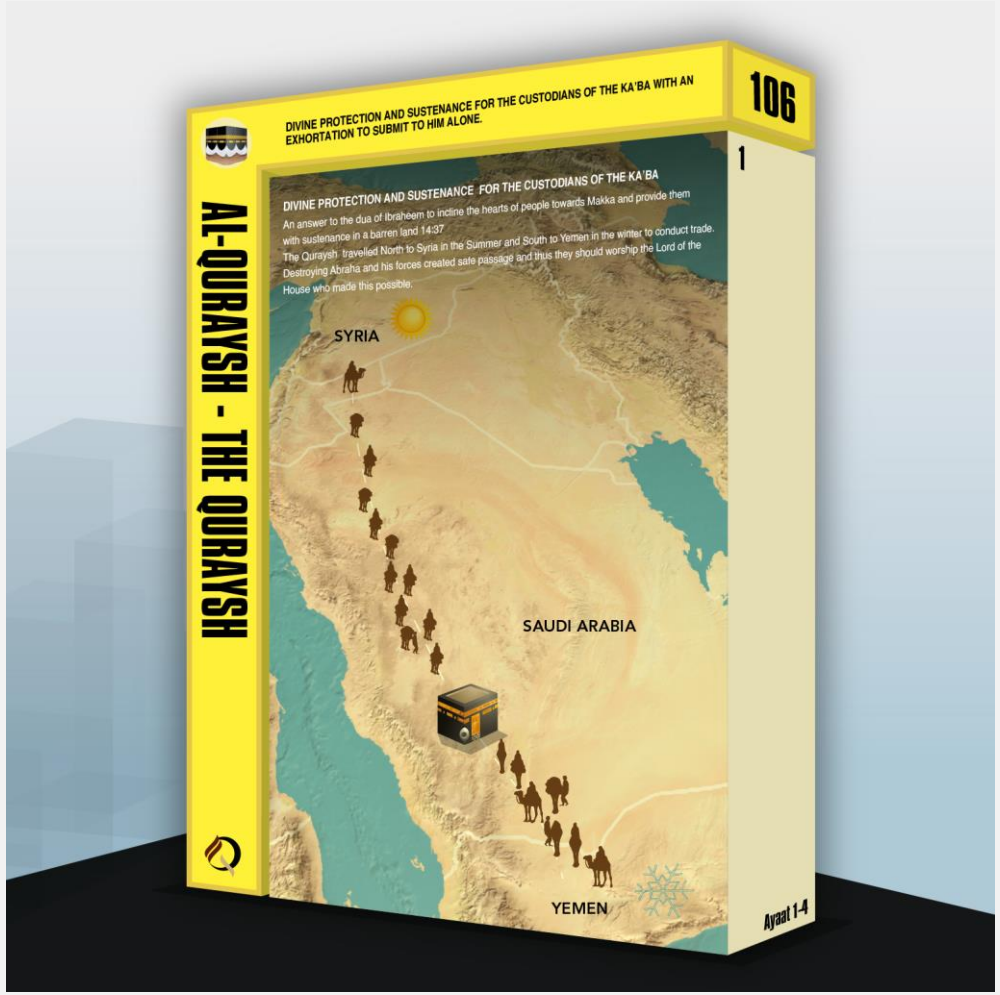
NARRATIVE



Al Quraysh is a Makka chapter which takes its name from the people of Makka. The first two verses are a reminder to the Quraysh of the blessings they have received from Divinity as a means of sustenance.

The last two verses provide the central theme of the chapter in submitting to Divinity from whom all prosperity and protection comes.
