NARRATIVE

The primary meaning is THE OPENING and it opens the Qur'an on optimism and gratitude. Hamd is a combination of praise and gratitude.

It is recited in every cycle of salaa and also recited on occasions as diverse as funerals.

It is the first complete chapter to be revealed; a synthesis of the message of the Qur'an and its most important sura thus also given the title – Mother of the Book

It has a three-fold structure:

The first answers WHO IS GOD?

The middle verses deal with the RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN HUMAN BEINGS AND GOD.

The final section deals with the VARIOUS STATES OF THE HUMAN BEING.
